GAME #12

Vs

Chittaway Oval, Chittaway Bay

THE DISTRESS CALL

Finally, the game against Berkeley Vale was going ahead !! Twice before this encounter had been washed out. Third time lucky? Well yes in the sense the weather had behaved but for the Tigers it meant the third game in 8 days and we were already depleted in troops. The injury list has extended to now feature: Meady (groin), Steve (knee), Flanno (calf) and Ian (hamstring). Also out: our goalie Aaron (family trip to the south coast) and Cottier (work commitments). Thankfully for us, many teams had the weekend off and this included the Wyoming 35ES squad so a distress call was sent their way. Hearing our plea were Ben Wilkinson, Ben "Surly" Surwald, Bobby Hay (goalie) and John Eden. Thanks guys.

THE ALL-STAR 35ES SQUAD: SURLY & BOBBY (KEEPER) / WILKO / JOHN.

The offside STEW takes a shot.

MILESTONES

There were several milestones leading into this game: For Luca it was his 50th game for this team, Mark's 75th; Chris's 80th; and Andy, the big 100!! Despite still one game away from such a metric marvel, Fordo opted to make his own milestone ... by scoring his first goal for the team! Only a few minutes into the game, Luca sent Andy up the left flank. Andy cut the ball across the 6-yard box. The keeper fumbled upon reaching for it. The deflection bounced perfectly for Fordo to slot it into the net. An early lead, what a novelty !!

FORDO gives us an early lead !

AROUND THE WALL

The joy was short lived however when a free kick was conceded just outside Wyoming's box. The ensuing shot curled around the wall and that was that, the score was level.

BERKELEY hits back several minutes later.

CHRIS heads a shot wide.

STEW on a collision course.

BEN takes a run up the right flank and shoots.

WOMBAT WHAMMIES

Despite several opportunities to hit the lead again, it would be the Wombats who made the most of their chances. They found the net twice more before half time. Disappointing particularly as it was a much tighter encounter than the scoreboard suggested.

BERKELEY's 2nd & 3rd goals.

A GLIMMER OF HOPE

The second half was more of a grind. A glimmer of hope gleamed when Luca and Andy combined again. Andy sent the ball through a gap where Ben and Stew were willing and waiting. Ben made the run down the left flank, cut it back inside and took a shot, it sailed beautifully across the goal into the opposite corner. We weren't dead yet.

BEN WILKINSON closes the gap.

THE GLIMMER ... GONE

Again though, the opportunities up front weren't buried. A quick free kick in favor of Berkeley caught our backline napping. In the mad scramble back, Berkeley got a fortuitous touch and wrapped up the result. Julia was adamant they'd scored 5 by full time ... that's what happens when you bring a book to a game.

MARK WALLACE topped the 3-2-1 points today with an excellent defensive effort.

CHRIS has a couple of late chances.

ANDY'S 100TH GAME CEREMONY

Today was Andy's turn to reach the 100 games milestone for this team ... and the curse continues as all three players who have this award now have received it after a loss. Thankfully, that's the last one to be handed out this year. Flanno, Chris, Brad and Mark should hit this target in 2018!

DIRTY SHIRTS

Only two jerseys were worthy of getting on the pointscore this week and what do you know, Fordo again! With the three points he's increased his lead on the competition. Gregg meanwhile picked up two points to join the clutter in 2nd place.

FORDO gets some help in picking up the dirty shirt points today.

LUCA and CHRIS had no luck on the scoreboard despite their best efforts here.

WEEK 13 PREVIEW

Competition leaders Killarney and Toukley finally meet (their washout from earlier in the year has been delayed till August) to determine who is that one step closer to the League Championship. Wyoming and Terrigal will be striving to get back into the Top 4 with clashes against Kanwal and Wyoming respectively. Meanwhile, Berkeley have a good chance of staying in finals contention when they take on last placed Tuggerah.
