CHAMPIONS!

WYOMING SOCCER CLUB FIRST GRADE PREMIERS 2004

MARCUS STEELE

Formerly with the Gosford club and the Coasties, Steeley has been an inspirational player and leader since joining Wyoming in 2003. A cool and composed sweeper Marcus was the rock on which the team's success was founded. While the premiership win was built on depth he was as close as it came to be irreplaceable.

DAMON AINSLEY

A Wyoming junior and ex-Coastie Damo is one of the most talented and skilful players on the Coast. On his day he is an out-and-out match winner as he proved with his brilliant performance in the Grand Final.

SIMON AINSLEY

Returning to top level club soccer after a season in All-Age Simon improved steadily in both fitness and form throughout the season. Another Wyoming junior he's sure to make a bold bid for a 1st Grade spot next season.

STEPHEN BECH

One of the club's most versatile players, Steve sacrificed the chance to play in his preferred position on the field to help out the club as reserve goalkeeper. Another lifetime Wyoming player Bechie has just completed 20 years with the club.

AARON BINSKIN

Formerly with East Gosford and the Coasties 'Binny' was one of several recruits that Coach McLafferty drew to Wyoming this season. Originally a midfielder injuries saw him drop back to his preferred defensive position where he proved a tower of strength.

PAT BRADLEY

A former NSL player with Wollongong PB was another new recruit this season. The team's midfield general, Pat's experience under pressure combined with his coolness and vision were critical factors in the team's success.

ANDREW BULL

Stepped into the goalkeeping hot seat this season with the departure of Matthew Collitts and quickly established himself as one of the Coast's leading goalkeepers. Strong, solid and reliable Bully played all his junior soccer with Wyoming.

SHANE BUTT

Arguably the most exciting player on the Coast, Shane has played all his club football with Wyoming. A brilliant attacking player, his combination with Brad Lewis was blossoming when injury cut short his season. A new maturity in his game makes Shane the player to watch next season.

LUKE GALE

In his sixth season with the Tigers, Luke was given the difficult task of replacing the injured Shane Butt at a crucial time in the season. A player with a great work ethic, Gale is solid and cool in front of the goals. He combined well with Brad Lewis as well as ebing a constant danger with his long throws.

PAUL JONES

An Ourimbah junior Paul joined Wyoming in 1996 with the U/18s. Has been a permanent member of the 1st Grade team since 1998 and has been there throughout the club's decline and rise. Fearless and reliable in defence 'Doik' fought back from a mid-season injury to win a place in the midfield for the grand final.

MICHAEL KENNEDY

Now in his 22nd straight year with Wyoming and his 8th in first grade, nobody wanted, or deserved, this premiership more than 'Kenno'. Skilful and dependable, his marking of East Gosford danger man Matt Simon in both the major semi and the grand final was a crucial factor in Wyoming winning the title.

BRAD LEWIS

Formerly with East Gosford Brad joined Wyoming in 2003 but struggled for fitness throughout that first season. Despite being in his mid-30s he entered the 2004 season fit and committed and was one of the stars of the season. Cool and decisive in front of goals he scored some critical goals and formed a great partnership with Shane Butt.

RYAN MARSHALL

A Wyoming junior, 'Rinny' rejoined the club in 2004 after a number of seasons with Ourimbah. Proved a tireless midfielder worker where his combination with Pat Bradley was an integral part in the team's success. His grand final penalty clinched the title for his team.

NEALE McANDREW

In his first season in Premier League Neale has impressed with his talent and commitment.

MATTHEW OWEN

Matty O joined Wyoming from the Kincumber club at the start of 2004 and was a member of the 1st Grade squad throughout the season. Although he struggled at times his contribution as a substitute in the major semi-final against East Gosford was crucial.

GREG PRESTON

Now in his 24th season with Wyoming Presto epitomises the Tiger spirit. A tough and uncompromising defender he was an integral part of the team until injury ended his season. Despite the disappointment of missing out on his second Grand Final in three years the team had no better supporter on the sideline.

TREVOR SHUTE

Arguably the best defensive player in Central Coast club soccer Trevor has been a permanent member of the Wyoming 1st Grade since leaving the juniors in 2001. Skilful and fearless yet disciplined he has been a cornerstone of the team.

ADAM WOOD

Another first season player with Wyoming, Adam played most of the season in Reserve Grade where his consistency and reliability in defence eventually earned him a call-up to the 1st Grade team for the major semi-final against East Gosford.

JOHN McLAFFERTY

The most influential figure in Central Coast soccer John played for Wyoming in the early to mid-1990s. In 1994 he coached the club's Reserve Grade team to a premiership before stepping up the Coasties where he guided the XXXX U/21 team to the Coast's first ever senior premiership.

KEN BUTT

A member of Wyoming's great 1st grade team of the late 1970s and 80s, Ken has been an integral part of the Wyoming's resurgence coaching the 1st Grade team out of Premier League 2 back into the top grade before making a smooth and seamless handover to John McLafferty.

LLOYD TAIT

The former King of Southern-United, Lloyd joined Wyoming this season as Assistant Coach. His positive support and outstanding technical understanding of the game provided a XXXX.

ERIC MARSHALL

Eric's connection with Wyoming goes all the way back to 1974, the club's first year of senior soccer. A player and coach with 'The Pensioners' Ecka returned to the club with son Ryan at the start of the season. Quiet and reserved he made a major 'behind-the-scenes' contribution to the team's success.

DAVE BOYD

The team's popular manager Boydie did most of the thankless jobs that most of us never see. As well he provided comic relief throughout the season XXXX MORE

MICHELLE LOW

Started the season as Brad Lewis's 'better half' but ended it as one of the most popular and respected members of the Premier League squad. The team strapper and physiotherapist, Michelle worked tirelessly on an ever-escalating toll of injury which at one stage threatened our premiership aspirations.
